Networking Lounges

For more details including locations, hours, and special programming, please refer to the below links on the ASCO Annual Meeting website.

Women's Networking Center

A space for Annual Meeting attendees to gather, discuss, and attend informal panel discussions related to pertinent issues that affect women in oncology.

Trainee and Early-Career Oncologist Member Lounge

The Lounge offers career development sessions with experienced oncologists, a place to network with colleagues, computer access, and complimentary refreshments.

Publications Lounge

Relax and connect with fellow authors, editorial board members, and reviewers and enjoy continental breakfast and light refreshments each day. The Lounge will hold small events, such as meet-and-greets with the journal editors.
